MATH DITTOS 2: Fact Controlled MATH for Special Learners is shareware. Shareware is material that can be tried, without charge, for up to 30 days. After that period, you are expected to either pay the shareware fee or delete the materials from your hard drive. MATH DITTOS 2: Fact Controlled MATH for Special Learners is protected by U.S. Copyright registration, ©1995-2009 Steven L. Wood. The "distribution version" may be freely copied and distributed in its original form with all accompanying documentation. Registered users may generate paper copies for their own individual classroom use. Registration of any MATH DITTOS 2 product includes a license to install and use the above on the computer(s) on which you work, whether at school and/or at home, providing that only one copy is in use at any one time. Distribution to a whole staff, school, or system is prohibited. Site licenses are available.
